1. Since the withdrawal of 4 Field Army units from Shihch'i and Chungshan, the only military forces in the area are a detachment of the Kwangtung-Kwangsi Column and the 1 Battalion of the Pearl River Delta Public Security Force.
2. Communist authorities of Shihch'i are concerned about their small force and the possibility of guerrilla attacks. The defense commander and the chief of police of Shihch'i have issued a joint proclamation to the effect that starting 28 September 1950 a curfew will be strictly enforced from midnight to 5 a.m. and no persons will be allowed on the streets during that time. Searches of residences have been carried out and gun positions set up at road junctions near the city.
